In the Tabor Tournament Bethel scored 7 points finishing in a fifth-place tie. Jerry Kagele won third-place honors. Bethel failed to score in the conference tournament, taking a tie for fifth.

Jerry Kagele had the best singles record at 5-7. Bruce Ediger was 4-5, and Charles Graber and Vernon Goering were 2-6. The most victories by anyone in doubles play was two. Stan Voth, Les Martens, and Charles Craig completed the team.

Golf

Bethel's Golf team managed two victories this season, one in each a dual and a triangular meet. They finished second in one triangular and in one quadrangular.

In dual matches, the best record was achieved by a first-year man, Ted Koontz, 9-2-1. Veteran Ross Becker was next at 6-5-1.

Track

Bethel fielded a strong running team, but lack of depth and weak field events prevented them from winning any meets. They placed second in one triangular and third in two quadrangulares. Freshman Wayne Niehage had some excellent performances in the dashes. Bill Pereboom's diversity and the strong relays were contenders at most meets. Pereboom scored points at most every distance, in the hurdles, and jumping. The highlight was at the Tabor meet, when two school records were set. Pereboom ran the half mile in 1:57.9 and the mile relay clocked 3:27.9.

The team finished tenth in the KCAC. Point gainers were: Niehage, fourth in 100 yard dash; Roger Unruh, sixth in 440 yard dash; Pereboom, third in 880 yard run; mile relay team fourth; 880 yard relay (Niehage replacing Roger Unruh) also finished fourth. Southwestern won the KCAC, followed by Baker and Ottawa.

Mirandolina, the Mistress of the Inn—

Elizabeth Heath

Fabrizius, serving man in the Inn—

Servant of the Cavalier—Bob Krehbiel

In this 18th century comedy, Goldini shows women to be more sensible than men, and lower classes to be superior to the upper class. Although somewhat sentimental, it is equally light-hearted and full of fun. The Mistress remains unaffected by competition to win her favor, and instead seeks the attraction of the Cavalier.

The Cavalier denies his affection for Mirandolina. . . .

The Marquis admires the honky he gave Mironolino.

"Women don't interest me."

Fobricius succumbs to Mirandalina's wishes.

Mirondolina continually entices the "uninterested" Cavalier.

Student Council

The 1964 Student Council, as a representative organization of the student body, sought to discover campus concerns, discuss them, and act upon those concerns in a just and creative manner. The council carried out its regular functions of organizing Freshman Initiation, Homecoming and Leap Week activities, selecting the exchangee and raising funds for the Wuppertal exchange program, and supervising the student publications: the Collegian and the Thresher. In addition, the council organized a Student Workday to complete the remodeling of the Student Union and to make a student contribution to the Fine Arts Center, assisted the Administration in holding Bethel's first High School Senior Day, held a Campus Leader's Conference, and worked to encourage more Bethel students to spend a year studying abroad.

The Student Council officers met weekly to discuss procedure and plans for future action, and to organize the agenda for meetings.

Their activities also included Christmas and Easter projects.

Throughout the year, Beta Kappa sponsored several parties and a banquet for its members.

The Collegian, our bi-weekly newspaper, serves as a publisher of news and student opinion. In addition to printing news articles, the Collegian also encourages students to comment on campus affairs through the editorial page. This year the Collegian realized its potential in becoming an effective student voice. It was well read, discussed and influential.

The policy of rotating editorship is followed. A new editor is appointed every quarter. He serves as an assistant for two quarters and then becomes editor-in-chief. As editor-in-chief, he supervises the proof-reading, pasting-up, and other aspects of editing.

The business manager and sports editor also hold their positions for three quarters. The sports editor sees that all major sports events are covered by reporters and takes change of the layout and the sports page. The business manager handles advertisements and all other business aspects of the Collegian.

Nathaniel McQueston, who sailed out of Salem harbor twenty years previously with the curses of his Puritan-minded family ringing in his ears, sails back into the harbor with his own ship, "Queen of the Celebes" loaded with spices. Since the McQueston family finances prove embarrassing, they are willing to compromise and take him back. But when they refuse to accept his Malay princess wife and his two children, Nathaniel decides to "buy" his welcome. False humility, venomous tongues and blackmail all find their niche under the cloak of Puritan piety. Nathaniel reckons "too much in dollars" and Oparre too much in "Hope beyond reason"; they discover that "because of one spoken word . . . all was suddenly gone."

Blackmail is used to summon Nathaniel to court.

Prejudice awaits Nathaniel at his arrival.

News of a diary proves fateful.

A mistake discovered too late.

Christmas Reader's Theater

Jane Douglass and Leann Schrag wrote, produced, and directed a special Christmas Reader's Theater.

Traditional Christmas Literature was the basis of the script and cut readings. Selections included "Christmas Carol" Scripture passages, "Little Match Girl," and "Gift of the Magi." The readers assumed various roles in the original script narrated by Clayton Koppes.

Clayton Koppes, Craig Challender, Carol Voth, Gerry Epp, Nancy Laughlin, Linda Eymann.

Debate and Forensics

A young excellent debate squad, with William Juhnke, Sr., as sponsor, completed the most successful year ever for Bethel. They traveled over 3750 miles in compiling a 67-24 overall record. The twelve tournaments attended included Rockhurst, Texas Christian, Central Oklahoma State, Wichita, Iowa State, and Pittsburg State. The highlight of the season was the State Tournament—the Kansas Intercollegiate Debate League Championship going to Bethel in a final round victory over Wichita. The winning team of Clayton Koppes and Bill Juhnke, Jr., had a 23-3 record over the last four tournaments producing a third at Pittsburg and firsts at McPherson and KIDL. Koppes and Bradbury finished third at Rockhurst and fourth at Texas Christian. Juhnke and Waltner also were quarter finalists twice.

Individually, Bradbury won a second speaker rating out of 166 debaters at Wichita. Janeal Crabb entered three tournaments in poetry reading and dramatic interpretation, twice a finalist.

Bethel served as host for an 86-team high school invitational tournament in October, and for a ten-school Forensics Festival in May.

Events

School Begins...

Students begin the new school year by traveling the winding road of enrollment and registration.

Freshman students find it helpful to have an advisor explain five hour classes and sixteen hour weeks.

Students say hello to old friends and greet new classmates as they all join hands for the Annual Fall Mixer.

After a week of beanies and nametags, freshman dates, and dorm initiation, the freshmen must face a Kangaroo Kourt. Julius "Pete" Caesar and his court judge the initiation crimes of the freshmen.

Student and faculty labor on Work Day was used to complete the Student Union improvement begun last year. A donation was also made toward the Fine Arts Center.

StuCo Action...

In October campus organization officers met to discuss their roles and to consider campus issues. This Leadership Conference started with a breakfast in the College Church and progressed to a faculty-student panel discussion and discussion groups. Topics discussed included the honor principle, library hours, and campus cliques.

Fall Climax...

"I crown you Queen Margaret—

Beautiful roses for a beautiful queen are presented to Queen Margaret by Stuco president Larry Martens.

Second Old, WRH, and Second West, Goering Hall, combined for the best homecoming float.

Second place float was constructed by Ground Old, WRH, and First West, Goering Hall.

Bethel's only exchange this year was with Wuppertal, Germany. Henrik Eger and Pete Trott were the fifteenth pair of exchangees. Henrik was very good at making his views known, participating in drama, and contributing to the Collegian.

Going, going—the annual auction raises money for the Wuppertol student.

Student Walkout

Victory over the Conference Champion Swedes ignited school spirit and team support, as the student body demanded a walk-out. Toast to the team, campus snake dance, and car rally gave expression to the enthusiasm of the Threshers.

Complete with chopsticks and soy sauce, the Oriental Bethel students celebrated Chinese New Year.

Varsity Football

A dismal season for the Threshers saw several good games and produced some outstanding performers. The highlight of the year came in the finale against Bethany, one of the two season victories. Another close game included the remarkable performance at Ottawa, conference co-champions. Lack of depth and key injuries prevented consistent output, resulting in seven defeats. However, the work of several freshman and transfers proved most encouraging.

Cross Country

This year's team was young and inexperienced. Morris Voth led the squad at each of the seven meets. There were no meet victories and a fifth place finish in the conference event. Bill Pereboom acted as coach. Running unattached, he won every meet that he entered and set a new record at the Tabor course. This year's participants were all average and could come on strong next fall.

Bill Pereboom, Morris Voth, Lean Guhr, Ed Colderan, Dick Evons, Gardon Schmidt, George Arnold.

Thresherettes

It was a rebuilding year for the girls' basketball team. After several magnificent seasons, this year's squad closed with only two victories, while managing two close games on the remaining four. Top scorer was a freshman, Lois Foth.

Varsity Basketball

A national ranking defense, but lack of scoring punch again hobbled the Threshers. Jim Nickel led the defense in allowing only 60.8 points per game to place Bethel seventh nationally in the NAIA, two ranks higher than last year. This year the Threshers outscored their opponents (62.5), but the difference wasn't enough. They defeated each conference team at least once, displaying some fine basketball against the top teams. Larry Schmidt, Ken Koehn, and Bob Pankratz each averaged over ten points per game, but the offense could not maintain a consistent drive. Another factor was height. Bob Fairbank, the only Thresher with over five rebounds per game, led with 7.4. The team placed second at the Moundridge tournament and fifth at McPherson, finishing the season at 13-10. Conference recognition of the two offensive-leading juniors should spark next year's team.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Bethel's second squad came on strong at the end, winning the last six and finishing 12-5. There were a number of fine freshmen on the team and some promising height. They played some real good basketball with an average score of 70-60, four times passing 80. The scoring was not strong, but was balanced with ten players averaging around 6.6 points a game. Pete Graber and Mark Janzen led the offense, but were kept to low averages as subs usually played most of the second half.

David H. "Uncle Davy" Richert (March 8, 1875
—November 28, 1964)

Through him we caught the spark of what Bethel was, is and is meant to be.

Professor Emeritus of Mathematics and Astronomy, he gave faithful devotion his last fifty-eight years to Bethel College. "He went beyond the bounds of his radius."
